ANVILLE, VA., August 1.—
Richmond and Danville broke even of the double-header pulled off here this afternoon. The score was four to one in both games. The first game was won by the locals, and was a pretty and interesting exhibition. The Tohacconists won by landing on Still, the visiting lifer for eleven clean hits, and by by landing on Still, the visiting twirler, for eleven clean hits, and by playing an errorless and snappy fielding game. Richmond did clover work in the field, but Rube Howard was invincible. Zurlage and Hessier, for Danville, and Shaffer and Cuddy, for Richmond, were stars for the respective teams. Danville dropped the second game as a result of dumb and listless playing. Howard could not hold up the standard he set in the first game, and was hit freely. Despite this, however, the score would have been different if the players behind him had had a little more ginger in their work. Hessier, for the locale, secured a pretty had a little more ginger in their work. Hessier, for the locale, secured a pretty two bagger, but was called out for cutling first base. Reeve, for Richmond, was the star of his team. Besides taking everything that came his way at short-stop, he got three hits that figured in the score. 'Happy' Eckstone was there, with the "goods," and the five hits that he sllowed were scattered. Umpire Newhouse gave good decisions to-day, and his work was appreciated on both sides. Coach Russell Confident That His Men Will Make Good between Robert S. Chamborlayne, Jr., of the Virginia; Wallace Klare, Arundel Club, champion of the Northern Chesapeake, and Joseph T. Daly, Potomac.

Mr. Chamborlayne is a fine oarsman, though somewhat new as a single sculier. Despite this fact, he has in an incredibly short time won the championship of this State. His boat is a little defective, but he says he is not afraid to enter her against the bost of them.

The crew of the dight-cared shell is nearly the same as that of last year, but three changes having been made. The carsmen are: 1, J. H. Crenshaw; 2, R. B. Forrest; 3, Thomas B. McAdams; 4, E. M. Thomas; 5, W. F. Jordon; 8, John B. Davis; 7, M. F. Berkeley; 8, Sydney Smith, with W. P. Shelton as coxswain.

The crew of the four-cared gis; 1, R. E. Michaels; 2, Irving Williams; 3, C. B. Todd; 4, John B. Christian, with George H. Boers, as coxswain.

H. W. Shelton, Jr., and R. S. Chamberlayne, are the only competent single scullers in the club, so Shelton will hold himself in, readiness to substitute for Chamberlayne, should it be necessary, though it is probable he will be one of the eight, as some changes may be made in the crew.
